

Special Education Support for Parents & Caregivers

Check out these free, online trainings from Fact Oregon that explain the basics of Special Education school supports for children with disabilities or learning challenges. You can do these trainings from the comfort of your own home!

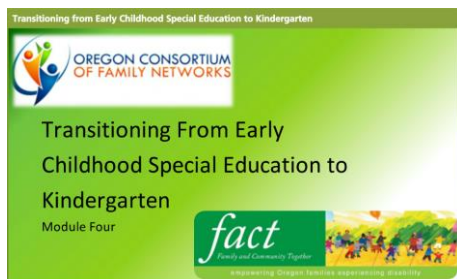

These trainings are available here:

<http://factoregon.org/online-learning-opportunities/>

Understanding the IEP (Individualized Education Program)

- Basics of a special education and an IEP

Transitioning from Early Childhood Special Education to Kindergarten

Assistive Technology: Creating Opportunities

- How assistive technology helps students in the classroom

FACT Oregon is a non-profit Portland-based organization that supports parents and caregivers who have questions about special education. They are happy to help! Contact them: www.factoregon.org or (503) 786-6082